attn: Auction Evaluations

Due to the large volume of requests we receive for auction evaluations, we regret that we are unable to respond to every inquiry. An appraiser will review your submission and contact you within three to four weeks if your material is appropriate for sale at auction.

Skinner does not accept unsolicited property for auction. All those interested in consigning must first submit images for auction evaluations. All property received in the mail unsolicited will be returned to sender.

All evaluations are provisional and subject to revision upon first-hand examination by a specialist.

We are unable to provide information regarding property that is of a type or value that is typically not offered by Skinner at auction.

Auction evaluations are statements of opinion only and shall not be relied upon by you or any third party as a prediction or guarantee of the actual selling price.

Skinner makes no representations or warranties with respect to the property, its authenticity, attribution, condition or otherwise. Furthermore auction evaluations are intended solely for the use of the owner of the property and only for the purpose of considering whether to consign the property to Skinner. It may not be used by the owner for any other purpose or by any third party for any purpose whatsoever, nor may it be published.
